

Symptoms which indicate that a heating system would benefit from a CLEARFLOW power flush

Any of these symptoms could indicate that the system has circulation and flow problems as a result of internal corrosion, scale and sludge formation. Power flushing can remove undesirable corrosion residues and replace aggressive water quickly, restoring circulation and efficiency, and preventing future problems.

Strange & unpleasant noises from the boiler, particularly when working hardest